WELCOME TO THE U DISTRICT

CELEBRATE THE CHERRY BLOSSOMS

Spring is cherry blossom season on the University of Washington campus, attracting thousands of visitors to the neighborhood each year! With a variety of flowering trees on- and off-campus, including the nearly 90-year-old spectacular Yoshino cherry trees that line the UW Quad, we welcome you to this beloved Seattle tradition.

EXPLORE THE U DISTRICT

With hundreds of restaurants and shops, there is always something new to discover in Seattle's University District. This blossom season, make your way to local hotspots featuring cherry and blossom-flavored specials, featured retail, and so much more!
